

CARNIVAL SOCIAL AND CASH SUCCESS

Firemen Realize Big Sum in Two-Night Affair Last Week.

DU MARAIS GRATEFUL

Success, complete and deserved, marked the Firemen's Carnival last week. It was a success, not only because it made money, but some thousands of people had a good time.

The final figures are not yet available, but it is believed that $3000 will be cleared for the Fire Department—a sum much needed to pay off part of the indebtedness on the recently purchased pumper.

The firemen and their many assistants are tired, but happy. The carnival was their first venture in affairs of that kind, but hard work and good weather made a perfect combination for success.

Not the least pleasing of the features of the affair was the condition of Haverford avenue the next day. Tired out from all the preparation and administration, the workers did not drop everything after the affair was over, but tackled the less thrilling job of cleaning up with equal vigor. As a result the business section emerged almost immediately, freed to booths and lights, and clean of paper and refuse.

The bulk sum realized by the carnival, financiers of the company point out, will not help in the running expenses. For that reason a special appeal is being made to every resident who is willing to take his part among the nonactive members, to send in three dollars to the company for a year's dues.

Our Town has received requests to pass on thanks to the committee and the citizens from Chief Charles V. Noel, Secretary J. F. Purse and many of the active members. The thought of the firemen, though, is well expressed in a letter from President Tristan B. DuMarais, which follows:

"One word of praise is far from commensurate to the colossal amount of work done by all of those who took part in making the carnival for the benefit of the Narberth Fire Company last week such a success, and it would be impossible in a few lines to give adequate acknowledgement to every individual concerned for what she or he has accomplished. I shall therefore not attempt to do so.

"In the meantime, however, I cannot wait until the next monthly meeting of the fire company to give vent to my individual enthusiasm for the wonderful manner in which the community at large has responded to the call for financial aid.

"Only three weeks ago a trio, the most accomplished promoters and indefatigable workers, kindly offered their services to the regular entertainment committee, and I cannot make a better comparison than to designate them the 'Three Musketeers,' for they were thoroughly one for three, and three for all. Their work went like a clock and was a salient feature throughout. They are Messrs. J. W. Darville, John B. Wine and W. D. R. Evans. Ask Charlie Noel, Taylor Henry or Albert H. Nulty, the regular entertainment committee what they did, and they will have a hard time to enumerate their accomplishments.

"This carnival was the means of bringing also contributed greatly and too many thanks can not be extended to them for their usual thoroughness in serving at their various booths, but who could have resisted their affability and graciousness?"

"As to our boys, the firemen, they as usual worked like Trojans: built the booths, decorated the grounds, put up the lights, and to cap the climax were up-to-date salesmen, but how hoarse they are yet as a result of their efforts in advertising their wares!"

"This carnival was the means of gringing together all our town for two evenings, and went a long way to cement the close ties already existing. This was indeed a great opportunity for our fellow-townsmen to show their appreciation."

STOPS RUNAWAY CAR

Quick thinking and quick action on the part of a Narberth girl prevented a possible serious accident a few days ago. A large car parked at Narberth and Woodbine avenues, on the steep grade beside the home of Dr. O. J. Snyder, slipped its brakes and began to run downhill toward the busy intersection of Essex avenue.

At is passed the Snyder garage, Miss Honora Snyder saw it and running to the road mounted the running-board, vaulted into the front seat and applied both brakes. Through her quick action and skill at the wheel the heavy car was guided away from points of danger and brought to a stop without damaging any autos parked on the street.

Miss Honora, a senior at Lower Merion, had recently returned from a summer in a New Hampshire camp. As a result of this, added to her liking for sports, she was in first-class physical trim to curb the runaway.

MERCHANTS MEET WEDNESDAY

The first fall meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade will be held next Wednesday. As usual, it will be in the form of a supper at Brynwood Manor Inn, beginning at 7 P. M.

The meeting date has been changed for this month from the usual Monday due to the Hebrew holidays on Monday and Tuesday. This would compel the absence of a number of merchants who plan to observe the New Year season.

A. N. Rickards, former president of the Philadelphia Association of Credit Men will be the speaker. He is well qualified to discuss this subject, most important to retail merchants.

LAUNCH MAIN LINE COUNCIL FOR BOYS

Boy Week, Vocational Guidance to Feature Work of Group.

CIVIC LEADERS MEET

The Main Line Boy Council, planned to synchronize all boy work in its territory, was formally launched Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. building in Ardmore. Seventeen men representing local civic bodies were in attendance.

With temporary president, E. A. Carlson in the chair, the group adopted the constitution drafted by the same committee in May. The document outlines the scope and purpose of the new organization as follows:

(a) To encourage and draw together in common purpose all individuals and agencies interested in Boy Work on the Main Line, for the common good of Boyhood.

(b) To arouse a greater interest in boys by making known through demonstrations, exhibitions and general publicity what the various organizations are undertaking and thus secure more adequate support for all.

(c) To help and be a friend to boys who need encouragement and guidance in education, vocation and life problems.

(d) To promote and encourage wise and helpful laws effecting the boy.

(e) To act as a clearing house, to gather and supply data, to issue and distribute literature and keep its members posted on Boys' Work Movements, methods and interests.

Membership will be open to all organizations and individuals interested in boys, subject to choice by the membership committee. The Board of Directors will be made up of a representative of each organization composing the Council. The officers and four members at large will constitute the executive committee, charged with the actual task of operating the organization.

Boy Week, which was so successful this spring, will be the feature of the Council's yearly work. In addition, various committees will take care of finance, vocational guidance, employment, legal problems, Big Brother work, etc.

Those present at the meeting were E. A. Carlson, H. A. Buehler, Dr. George P. Yocum, Roger T. Burns, John H. Weigell, Philip A. Livingston, C. B. Pennypacker, Edgar S. Downs, Dr. S. A. Crowther, Albert L. Reinhold, Henry L. Reinhold, Eugene W. Baldwin, John K. Baer, William T. McIntyre, William H. Rodenbaugh, Pentz Pippin, Rev. Albert C. Kanizinger.

Election of officers will take place at the meeting to be held in October, at which time a number of other prominent citizens pledged to the work are expected to be present.

RAID GENERAL WAYNE

And Scare Voters in Primary Election—Get Liquor.

Voting in the General Wayne Inn, which is the polling place for the General Wayne district of Lower Merion, was temporarily halted Tuesday afternoon, when four Federal prohibition agents raided the place. Two women checking the names of the voters screamed and fell to the floor fainting, when the raiders drove up in a motor, entered the barroom wherein the polling booths were located, and vaulted the bar. The women were soon revived.

The inn, of which John T. Odell is the alleged proprietor, is well known along the Main Line and in Philadelphia. The Federal agents found a pint of whisky and two quarts of benedictine behind the bar, they said. A number of barrels of near-beer were tested on the bar.

TAX DEADLINE NEAR

Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold this week issued a warning that the zero hour for the saving of tax penalties is at hand.

On September 15 the 5 per cent. penalty was added to the county taxes. Hundreds of residents paid in time to save this fee.

On October 1, a 5 per cent. penalty will be added to all unpaid school taxes, and the 5 per cent. on borough taxes will not be allowed.

In order to facilitate payments, Mr. Dold will be at the Narberth National Bank to receive taxes from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M., Thursday and Friday, and Friday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

TO PLAY GLADWYNE

This afternoon Narberth will play Gladwyne, champions of the Main Line League. The game will be called at 3 P. M. at the playground.

The game has been scheduled after many requests from fans who want to see the local team take a crack at the champs. The Merion Square boys always put up a good game and profess a liking for Narberth's playing field and rooters.

Weather permitting, the last game of the series with the Autocar Giants will be played October 1. The series stands even with one apiece, and Manager Fred Walzer is looking forward to a good game.

The patrons of Mr. Benjamin Yowell are once again assured of prompt and courteous service, since his return to the post office after a vacation spent in touring the South.

Chester P. Cook Wants Narberth to Join Lower Merion Township

Is it pure selfishness which keeps Narberth in its position of a pocket borough, instead of making the town a part of Lower Merion Township? That question, and several other pertinent comments along the same line, are brought up in a letter to Our Town, received this week from Chester P. Cook.

Mr. Cook, although not a resident of Narberth, is the owner of a big section of business properties on Haverford avenue. He lives in Merion, operates a general store at Anselma, Chester county, and was at one time owner of the Narberth coal yard.

His letter, which should provoke discussion, at least, is printed herewith. Our Town will welcome further comment for or against the idea from any readers who possess opinions concerning Narberth's political destiny.

Says Mr. Cook:

"Some years ago when in the town of Dover, Del., the landlord of the hotel at which I was stopping gave expression to his feelings in about the following language: 'Delaware, with its three counties, ought to go into the State of Maryland, which would absorb our overhead expenses. Our people are burdened with all kinds of special taxes that other States do not have, so that we can have our own Governor, etc., as well as our Statehood and glorious traditions of Caesar Rodney. Now that Governor Wilson has passed his 'Seven Sisters Bill,' we are, of course, getting all the nice incorporation tax that New Jersey used to enjoy, which helps some but State pride is keeping us poor.'"

"Delaware since then has kept pace with her sister States through the aid of her famous sons, the duPonts."

"Narberth is in somewhat the position of the State of Delaware in the humble opinion of the writer and like the prodigal son should be making back track toward the emerald bosom of its mother township, Lower Merion, which has vast wealth, both developed and undeveloped, and which will be growing throughout the twentieth century while Narberth has about reached the limit of her growth."

"The basic idea of a borough is in the main, pure selfishness. That is to say that a little band of people huddled together in a township decide to absorb the major portion of their taxes among themselves and contribute nothing toward maintaining roads and schools in the remaining portion of the township."

"Narberth borough has always been well governed and many earnest and able men have been numbered among her Burgessess and Councilmen. Her Fire Department is second to none her laws have been well considered and she is a model of her type, but how about the nice new grammar school on Bowman avenue, Merion, that our South Side kiddies can't attend?"

"How about the great Lower Merion High School, which flows educates the Narberth boys and girls and treats them just the same as if they lived in the township, but reserves the right to alter that policy should changing conditions make that school too crowded?"

"How about the Police Department of Lower Merion that so efficiently takes care of our homes and people, charging us little or nothing for overhead? Suppose we should lose that?"

"Lower Merion can take us back if we carry our own debts until amortized."

LOCAL MAN HONORED

William H. Creamer, Jr., of Merion avenue, has been appointed District Deputy of the 23d district of Pennsylvania Knights of Columbus, for the ensuing year.

The appointment is one entailing honor and responsibility as the district is a large one, including good sized cities, such as Norristown, Pottstown, Phoenixville, etc.

Mr. Creamer has long been a prominent figure in American Legion affairs and in the Knights of Columbus. He is a lawyer by profession.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Four members of the Women's Community Club will attend as delegates to the 32d annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women. The convention will be held in the Carnegie Music Hall, Pittsburgh, from October 10 to 14.

At a special meeting of the Executive Board, Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, president of the club, requested members having announcements for the October Calendar to notify her before September 26.

(by legislative enactment she can take up in no other way) and if we can present a united front in the Court proceedings that would have to take place should we apply for admission to the township it is doubtful that we would meet with much opposition.

"I shall be pleased with the rest of your readers to hear the adverse argument to all this, other than the usual ash and garbage retort. The question is one worthy of the best thought of both the renters and the property owners of Narberth and I am writing this letter at the risk of waking Aunt Lizzie. I am ready to take the lead or follow in the rear should a real movement be started in the direction suggested."

CHESTER P. COOK.

"P. S.—Lower Merion assessments are as low, if not lower, than our own and the rates of taxation much lower which, of course, doesn't mean anything owing to our present prosperity, but still it has a bearing on the question, don't you think so? When I recollect how my Narberth friends used to growl about the price of coal I am sure that they still have feeling in regard to high taxes."

GOODFELLOWSHIP CLUB MEETING

The Goodfellowship Club of the Narberth M. E. Church will hold its first fall meeting Monday evening, September 26, at 8 P. M., at the church, and it is declared that all members arrange to attend and bring their friends. A large attendance is looked for.

Special attention is also called to the Goodfellowship Club sour kraut supper, which is to be given at the church Friday evening, October 14, at 6 P. M. A wonderful meal is in store for those who will come. Price of tickets to be 50 cents. The committee wishes to serve not less than 200, which means that members must get busy and boost the feed.

OUTING IS TOMORROW

Republicans Will Celebrate Election Results at Gladwyne.

Hundreds of cars of corn will be boiled, and many impromptu speeches will be made, when women and men of the Republican Association of Lower Merion and Narberth attend the annual outing of the organization, to be held tomorrow afternoon at Wilson's Grove, opposite the Gladwyne School, in Gladwyne.

Township Treasurer Peter C. Hess, who is township leader, stresses the fact that women as well as men are welcome, inasmuch as women are included among the candidates who received votes on the regular Republican ticket in the primaries Tuesday.

EX-SENATOR SPEAKS

Former Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, was the speaker at the meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday. He chose as his subject "Fellowship."

The meeting was under the direction of Fred Walzer, chairman of the Fellowship Committee, who procured the speaker. Mr. Stites gave one of his convincing and humorous talks, putting over his ideas in a pleasing manner.

Five members of the Ardmore Club were visitors. They were Pentz Pippin, Eugene Baldwin, William E. Kamerdz, Harry Bare and Harry Leedom.

Dr. Carl W. White, absent for many weeks due to an operation, was welcomed back Tuesday.

MARRIAGE NEXT WEEK

LIST PARALYSIS CASE

But Diagnosis Is Not Certain—Board Takes No Chances.

Three-year-old Anthony Coforo, 221 Jefferson street, West Manayunk, was reported by the Lower Merion health officer late last week to be suffering from the first case of infantile paralysis noted in Lower Merion since a threatened outbreak caused the closing of schools in Hattboro last week. Calling a special meeting of the Lower Merion Health Board Wednesday night in the township building, Dr. B. K. Wilbur, president of the body, ordered a careful inquiry made.

Diagnosis of the cases by two consulting physicians reveals that it is not certain that the ailment is infantile paralysis. But to be safe no chances have been taken. According to Dr.
Wilbur, Blanche Meeser, Bala-Cynwyd member of the board, had the Ashland School fumigated last week;
and all members of the Coforo family in West Manayunk were quarantined immediately upon discovery of the case, to prevent further contagion, in case the original diagnosis should prove correct.

ACADEMY OPEN TUESDAY

New boys admitted to Episcopal Academy, on City Line, reported for registration Tuesday, and old students entered on Wednesday. The school's quota of 500 boys was filled early in the summer.

Miss Alma Weigel, of Gilpin road, Wynnewood, had as her guest for several days last week, Miss Florence Stancombe, of Bangor, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Monnington and family, of 15 Elmwood avenue, who recently closed their cottage at Avalon, N. J., were among those seen at the carnival last Saturday night.

Mrs. Edwin Anderson and her small daughter, Sonia, spent several days in Atlantic City last week.

Mrs. H. Gerald Venemann, of Hampden avenue, attended the D.
A. R. Convention in Bedford Springs this week. She was a delegate from the Benjamin Rush Chapter, of Nar-berth.

Know before You Buy

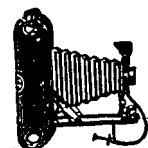

THE time is not far distant when the prospective coal customer will have several questions to ask his dealer before he signs up for a supply of fuel.

To wit: "How does your coal run in carbon content? I want to be assured of plenty of heat units. What is its percentage of ash? I can't have my back and disposition ruined shoveling out ashes."

We as dealers in Jeddo-Highland coal exclusively are prepared to answer these questions right now. Chemical analysis has proved to us that our coal has much hidden value. Know before you buy!

PUBLISHERS PROVIDE BOOK-PLATES

About a year ago Henry Holt and Company, the book publishers, began printing bookplates inside the front covers of some of their popular books, at the same time providing a colored string to serve as a bookmark. The design of the bookplate varies with the book and is selected for its relation to the nature of the story.

Library readers have noticed in "Dusty Answer," by Rosamond Lehmann, such a bookplate and have found it an interesting example of the relation of the bookplate to the book itself. This book is an unusual one in many ways. It was one of three published this summer to select the title of "Dusty Answer," and was successful in establishing the priority of its claim.

Also it is a first novel by a young woman and is hailed as the most remarkable first novel produced in many a year. The only other contribution which Miss Lehmann has made to literature is a poem printed in an English magazine. Her poetic touch is seen in her novel and there are but few traces of her immaturity in the unfolding of the tale. The book has been chosen by the Book of the Month Club for its September selection and is now ready for circulation at the library.
